Military Academy Women Authors
Discussion and Book Signing

The Women In Military Service For America Memorial Foundation and the Women’s Research & Education Institute (WREI) will co-host a discussion and book signing with five women authors, four of whom are graduates of the nation’s prestigious military academies, on Thursday, Sept. 23, 2010, at 6:30 p.m. The event is in commemoration of the 30th anniversary of women graduating from the Academies, a major milestone in the history of women’s service to the nation.

The authors will discuss their books as well as offer their first-hand perspective of the young women who have come of age over the past 30 years at the Service Academies—their contributions to the military and to today’s combat team. Retired Navy Captain Lory Manning, WREI’s Director of the Women in the Military Project, will moderate the discussion.

Participating authors include:

The event, which will be held at the Women’s Memorial, is free and open to the public. To reserve a seat, RSVP by calling 703-533-1155 or email hq@womensmemorial.org. Please include the number attending.
